ABOUT:

Follow Peter from a young boy into adolescence as these beloved stories transport us through his discovery of newly fallen snow, an encounter with local bullies, and taking the risk of inviting a crush to his birthday party.

Using shadow puppetry and light play, music, and live actors, the wonder and wishes of childhood are captured in this charming adaptation of Ezra Jack Keats' award-winning children's book. Join in on the fun as Peter ventures into the snow, new friendships and the magic of imagination!
